

Regarding Disaster Relief Funds for Victims of China's Sichuan Earthquake

The Toyota Boshoku Corporation (Head Office: Kariya, Aichi; President: Shuhei Toyoda) Group has decided to allocate disaster relief funds via the Chengdu Charity Federation, a non-profit organization of Sichuan, in an effort to aid the victims of the earthquake whose epicenter was China's Sichuan Province.

The allocated amounts of the contributions are as follows:

Chengdu Toyota Boshoku Automotive Parts Co., Ltd., Toyota Boshoku's subsidiary in Sichuan Province, China: 1 million yuan (approx. 15 million yen)

Toyota Boshoku (China) Co., Ltd., representing 13 Group Companies of the China/Taiwan Region, and

Toyota Boshoku Corporation, Japan:

1 million yuan (approx. 15 million yen)

Total: 2 million yuan (approx. 30 million yen)

In addition to the above, a fund drive will be held to collect donations from company employees.

Supplement

Outline of Chengdu Toyota Boshoku Automotive Parts Co., Ltd.

- (1) Location: No. 9-5 South Road, Tiaodeng River, Chenghua Area, Chengdu City, Sichuan Province
- (2) Representative: Akihiro Umino, President
- (3) Established: March, 1999
- (4) Business lines: Production and sales of seats, interior parts, and other components of automobiles
- (5) Number of Employees: 369 (as of May, 2008)