Kariya(JAPAN) –December 28,2021–Toyota Boshoku Corporation was planning to exhibit at CES 2022 to be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA, however, we have decided to cancel our exhibition at in-person venue after careful consideration and discussion. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience caused to those who were planning to visit our booth, and we appreciate your understanding.

We will join the digital venue as planned, and you can experience two interior concepts based on autonomous driving for the future mobility interior space solution for the MaaS community via our online site.
