

Toyota Boshoku to First Exhibition at Bharat Mobility Global Expo 2025

Toyota Boshoku Corporation (Headquarters: Kariya City, Aichi Prefecture, Japan; President, CEO: Masayoshi Shirayanagi), will be exhibiting for the first time at Bharat Mobility Global Expo 2025*.

We view the Indian market as one of our most important markets, which is expected to see growth, and are actively working to expand our business.

Through this exhibition, we aim to understand market needs and increase our market recognition in order to receive further orders in the future.
