

ARJ Changing Name to Toyota Boshoku Tennessee

New name with same continued commitment to the Jackson community

JACKSON, TENNESSE – March 24, 2016 – ARJ Manufacturing, LLC will change its name effective April 1, 2016 to Toyota Boshoku Tennessee, LLC. Opening in Jackson, Tennessee in 2001, ARJ was first established as a joint venture between Araco (later becoming Toyota Boshoku) and Johnson Controls, manufacturing seat components for the automotive industry. In September 2010 ARJ became wholly owned by Toyota Boshoku. The new name will better align the company within the Toyota Boshoku America Inc. family.

Toyota Boshoku Tennessee employs nearly 250 team members at the Jackson facility. All employees will remain with the company. It is a premier stamping and welding assembly supplier for over 50 models of automobiles to multiple auto manufacturers and is a key member of the local Jackson community.
